GARRETT HOUSE - 1875-1900 - 2310 Garrett Road, north side, Vernon vicinity. The road here was laid out in April 1864 to run through an old tract called Gillis's Garden. The B.H. Garrett house shown in 1877 (when the house lay on the south side of the road) burned and was replaced by present structure, which appears as "Cannon" house in 1898 and 1915 atlases. Two-story frame house in vernacular style with square attic windows in gable ends; covered with yellow aluminum siding; 3 bays wide; rear wing; full-width front porch decorated with small Victorian scrolls and supporting posts. Owner: Charles E. Garrett.
